Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza (Home for the Relief of the Suffering)

Sat, Sep 24th: San Giovanni Rotondo/St. Michaels Cave

This morning we have Mass at the Casa Sollievo della Sufferenza. After Mass we visit St. Michael's Cave. In the year 492 a man named Gargan was pasturing his large herds in the countryside. One day a bull fled into the mountain, where at first it could not be found. When its refuge in a cave was discovered, an arrow was shot into the cave, but the arrow returned to wound the one who had sent it. Faced with so mysterious an occurrence, the persons concerned decided to consult the bishop of the region. He ordered three days of fasting and prayers. After three days, the Archangel St. Michael appeared to the bishop and declared that the cavern where the bull had taken refuge was under his protection, and that God wanted it to be consecrated under his name and in honor of all the Holy Angels.

Sun, Sep 25th: San Giovanni Rotondo/Cascia/Roccaporena

Morning departure to Cascia. Cascia is the home of St. Rita of Cascia and her incorrupt body lies in the Major Basilica. Below in the Minor Basilica is the Eucharistic Miracle and the remains of Blessed Simone Fidati. At the time of the miracle a certain priest had lost his respect for the Eucharist and when going on a call to administer the Holy Sacraments to an ailing peasant took a Consecrated Host and placed it between the pages of his breviary. When he opened the book, he saw that the Host had turned red with fresh blood and was impregnated with the two pages between which it had been placed! The priest sought out for counsel Blessed Simone Fidati, a pious priest of the time. He recognized the priest's error and gave him absolution. He took the two pages, putting one in a tabernacle in Perugia and the other in Cascia. The miracle is commemorated each year on the Feast of Corpus Christi in Cascia. There are those who look at the bloodstained page and see the image of Christ. After our visit we continue to Roccaporena, birthplace of St. Rita. We visit her home and the Shrine of St. Rita.

Mon, Sep 26th: Assisi

Morning departure to Assisi. Upon arrival, we visit to Basilicas of St. Francis and St. Clare, where we see the Tombs of the two Saints. Remainder of the day is free for private devotions.

Tue, Sep 27th: Assisi - Lunch at a Winery

Today we visit the Church of San Damiano. The church and convent of San Damiano is where it all began in Assisi. It originally was a small Benedictine priory, dating back to 1030. In 1205, a young, restless, Francesco was praying before a 12th century painted crucifix. Suddenly Christ on the crucifix came to life and spoke to Francis, saying, "Rebuild my church." Francis took the command literally at first, reconstructing the little church with his own hands. The church later became a favorite retreat for Francis and it was here that he wrote the first draft of his celebrated "Canticle of the Creatures." St. Clare, close friend of Francis, founded her Order of the Poor Clare's at San Damiano in 1212. She lived here most of her life as its abbess and passed away in an upstairs room on August 11, 1253. Her body was transferred a few years later to the Basilica of St. Clare which was built in her honor.

After our visit we continue to a local winery for Lunch and to taste some of the local wines. After our visit we return to Assisi for free time to explore Assisi on our own or just to spend some time in solemn meditation and prayer.

Wed, Sep 28th: Assisi/La Verna/Padua

Morning departure to Padua. En route we stop for Mass at La Verna. Count Orlando of Chiusi gave La Verna to St. Francis on May 8, 1213 as a retreat for contemplation. In 1218 he built the chapel Santa Maria degli Angeli. In August, 1224, Francis withdrew to La Verna to keep a forty day fast in preparation for Michaelmas (the Feast of St. Michael) and while praying on the mountain-side he received (on or about 14 September) the stigmata. Thus La Verna came to be seen as sacred ground. After our visit, we continue to Padua. Upon arrival we visit the Basilica of St. Anthony of Padua to see the Tomb of St. Anthony.

Thu, Sep 29th: Padua/Venice/Padua

Our first stop today is at the Basilica of St. Anthony for Mass. After Mass, we are transferred to Venice for our short cruise along the Grand Canal to the Church of St. Geremia and St. Lucy to view the body of St. Lucy. Next to St. Marks Square for a tour including St. Marks Basilica with its Byzantine and European architectural styles and dazzling mosaics. We stop to pray at the tomb of St. Mark before continuing our walking tour of Venice. We have free time for lunch (on our own) and shopping before our late afternoon return to Padua.

Fri, Sep 30th: Venice/USA - Morning departure to Venice airport for your return flight to the USA.
